

SFOA | FIA | FIA EUROPE
BÜRGENSTOCK 2014
scrapbook

Photos by Erich Häsler

Cross-Border Issues

J. Christopher Giancarlo, CFTC commissioner, decries cross-border “trade war” on swaps oversight.

CCP Recognition

Martin Merlin, the EC's director for financial markets, discusses timing for equivalence determinations of foreign CCPs.

Perspective on Technology

Veronica Augustsson, CEO of Cinnober, discusses the role of technology in derivatives markets.

Global Regulation

Simon Puleston Jones, CEO of FIA Europe, chairs a discussion with European and U.S. regulators on the progress toward cross-border harmonization.

A Great Gathering

Officials from FIA and SFOA gather in Geneva for the 35th Bürgenstock forum. Pictured left to right: Daniel Day-Robinson, vice chairman of SFOA; Walt Lukken, FIA president and CEO, Jacqueline Mesa, FIA SVP and director of International Relations; and Otto E. Nägeli, SFOA chairman.

An Intermediary's Perspective

Bill Stenning, managing director, clearing, regulatory and strategic affairs at Société Générale, discusses the impact of market structure changes on intermediaries.