² If one of the parties to this Agreement is a swap dealer, the swap dealer shall be Party A.

1. Applicable Law; Standard of Care. This FIA-ISDA Cleared Derivatives Execution Agreement (this “Agreement”) shall apply to all transactions (“Derivatives Transactions”) executed or traded between Party A and Party B (over-the-counter or on a Swap Execution Facility) that are, at the time of execution thereof, agreed by Party A and Party B to be cleared on a Clearing Organization, other than futures and options on futures contracts, or other derivatives transactions, executed on or subject to the rules of a designated contract market subject to the jurisdiction of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (including derivatives transactions entered into over-the counter and cleared as futures or options on futures contracts) or a foreign board of trade subject to regulation in its home jurisdiction or any other listed options.³ This Agreement and each Derivatives Transaction, and disputes relating thereto, shall, unless otherwise specified herein, be subject to all applicable governmental laws and regulations, and the rules, regulations, interpretations, protocols, customs and usages of any applicable self-regulatory organization, Swap Execution Facility, or Clearing Organization, as amended from time to time (“Applicable Law”). Additionally, the time frames within which Party A and Party B are required under this Agreement to effect Party A Submissions and Party B Affirmation Submissions, respectively, shall be interpreted in accordance with the relevant Applicable Law relating to such timings (including, but not limited to, § 23.506 of Chapter I of Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulation. The parties to this Agreement shall perform their respective obligations and exercise their respective rights under this Agreement in good faith, in a commercially reasonable manner under the circumstances, and consistent with Applicable Law.

2. Party A Submission; Party B Affirmation/Rejection.⁴ Party A and Party B may, from time to time, enter into Derivatives Transactions, the terms and conditions of which shall be governed by (i) Applicable Law and (ii) such documentation between Party A and Party B to which they may have agreed, including but not limited to an ISDA Master Agreement (“Derivatives Documentation”). As soon as technologically practicable after entering into such Derivatives Transaction with Party B, Party A will submit an electronic message, through an applicable trade submission system, including notice to Party B, specifying the trade details for such Derivatives Transaction as required by Applicable Law (the “Party A Submission”).

As soon as technologically practicable after receiving such Party A Submission, Party B will (x) affirm such Party A Submission (such affirmation by Party B, the “Party B Affirmation Submission”), or (y) reject such Party A Submission, or deny knowledge, of such Derivatives Transaction, in each case in accordance with the procedures established by the applicable trade submission system, including notice to Party A, and if Party B has affirmed the Party A Submission, to Party B’s Clearing Member.

If Party B rejects such Party A Submission, Party A and Party B will consult in an effort to resolve any issues related to the Party A Submission for such Derivatives Transaction and effect such submissions within such timeframes as they have agreed to in such consultation, failing which this Agreement shall no longer govern such dispute and the disputed transaction shall no longer constitute a Derivatives Transaction for purposes of this Agreement.

3. Transactions Accepted for Clearing. Upon acceptance of such Derivatives Transaction for clearing by the Clearing Organization in accordance with the applicable Clearing Organization rules, each of Party A and Party B shall be deemed to have entered into separate cleared Derivatives Transactions (“Cleared Transactions”) governed by the applicable agreement that each has with its respective Clearing Member, including all annexes, schedules and other supplements thereto (or, to the extent that Party A or Party B is a Clearing Member, other applicable arrangements, if any), and Party A and Party B shall have no further rights against or obligations to each other with respect to such Derivatives Transaction.

4. Transactions Not Accepted for Clearing. Each of Party A and Party B represents to the other, as at the time of execution of a Derivatives Transaction, that it has a clearing agreement with a Clearing Member (or is, or its affiliate is, a Clearing Member). Each of Party A and Party B agrees that a breach of the foregoing representation by a party shall not constitute an event of default (howsoever described) for the purposes of this or any other agreement, and that the sole remedy in respect of such a breach shall be the fallbacks as set out in this Section 4 to the extent that the Derivatives Transaction is not cleared. If a party’s Clearing Member has not accepted the Derivatives Transaction on or before the Clearing Member Cut-off, then the fallbacks set forth below would apply. If a Clearing Organization rejects a Derivatives Transaction for clearing or has not accepted a Derivatives Transaction for clearing prior to the commencement of the Party A Election Period, then the fallbacks set forth below would also apply.

³ The extent to which this Agreement will apply to certain security-based swaps, including CDS on narrow-based indices and single names, will depend on the scope of the regulations to be adopted by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission and the Securities and Exchange Commission. This Agreement may have to be revised to reflect those or other regulatory requirements, including but not limited to cut-off times for the submission and acceptance of cleared Derivatives Transactions and breakage in the event a Derivatives Transaction is not accepted for clearing.

⁴ Parties may also elect to include in this Agreement the allocation of swap data reporting obligations as between the parties.

Unless otherwise agreed by Party A and Party B, Party A will consider the following fallbacks in the order set out below and elect, in its sole discretion, the application of one of the following fallbacks and will provide notice of its election to Party B, in each case through an applicable trade submission system (if available, or otherwise in writing), as soon as practicable after it has made its election, and in any event, on or prior to the expiry of the Party A Election Period:

- (a) Party A, if a Clearing Member, may elect to accept the Derivatives Transaction as a cleared Derivatives Transaction (i.e., Party A acts as Clearing Member for the Derivatives Transaction) or may, if it has an affiliate which is a Clearing Member, elect to have such affiliate accept the Derivatives Transaction as a cleared Derivatives Transaction (assuming, in each case, the appropriate documentation between the parties exists at the time or the parties can agree on appropriate documentation at the time), in which case Party A shall submit the Derivatives Transaction to such alternative Clearing Member for acceptance and clearing.
- (b) Party A, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, may elect to accept the Derivatives Transaction as a bilateral Derivatives Transaction (assuming the appropriate documentation between the parties exists at the time or the parties can agree on appropriate documentation at the time), in which case such Derivatives Transaction shall no longer be subject to this Agreement.
- (c) If Party A does not elect either (a) or (b), Party A may elect (or be deemed, pursuant to Paragraph 4(f) below, to elect) to terminate such Derivatives Transaction and either Party A or Party B will pay an “Early Termination Amount” to the other as determined pursuant to the terms of Section 6(e) of a deemed 2002 ISDA Master Agreement (hereinafter, “Section 6(e)”) between Party A and Party B on the following basis: (i) the date of such election (or deemed election) shall be the “Early Termination Date”; (ii) such “Early Termination Date” shall be deemed to have arisen from an “Additional Termination Event” in respect of which such Derivatives Transaction is the sole “Affected Transaction”; (iii) the “material terms” (for the purposes of clause (a) of the definition of “Close-out Amount” in such deemed 2002 ISDA Master Agreement) of such Derivatives Transaction shall, for the avoidance of doubt, include the fact that such Derivatives Transaction was to be cleared by the relevant Clearing Organization; (iv) the “Termination Currency” shall be U.S. dollars; (v) the “Governing Law” shall be New York law; and (vi):
 - (x) if a Derivatives Transaction fails to clear because (A) Party A fails to submit the Party A Submission relating to such Derivatives Transaction on or before the Party A Cut-off, (B) Party A’s Clearing Member has not accepted the Derivatives Transaction or rejects such Derivatives Transaction for clearing, including, without limitation, because Party A has violated a position or credit limit imposed by Party A’s Clearing Member, or (C) the Clearing Organization rejects such Derivatives Transaction because Party A’s Clearing Member has violated a position or credit limit imposed by the Clearing Organization, Party A shall be the sole “Affected Party” solely for purposes of Section 6(e) and Party [] shall determine the Early Termination Amount;
 - (y) if a Derivatives Transaction fails to clear because (A) Party B fails to affirm the relevant Party A Submission (other than because it has rejected it in accordance with Paragraph 2(y)) on or before the Party B Cut-off, (B) Party B’s Clearing Member has not accepted the Derivatives Transaction or rejects such Derivatives Transaction for clearing, including, without limitation, because Party B has violated a position or credit limit imposed by Party B’s Clearing Member, or (C) the Clearing Organization rejects such Derivatives Transaction because Party B’s Clearing Member has violated a position or credit limit imposed by the Clearing Organization, Party B shall be the sole “Affected Party” solely for purposes of Section 6(e) and Party A shall determine the Early Termination Amount; and
 - (z) if a Derivatives Transaction fails to clear because a Clearing Organization has not accepted a Derivatives Transaction for clearing or rejects a Derivatives Transaction for clearing for any other reason, Party A shall determine the Early Termination Amount at mid-market pursuant to clause (ii)(3)(A) and (B) of Section 6(e). For purposes of clause (ii)(3)(A) and (B), Party A is the Determining Party.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the party determining the Early Termination Amount pursuant to (x), (y) or (z) above fails to do so in a timely manner (and in any event by the end of the [fifth] Local Business Day after the Early Termination Date) then the Early Termination Amount shall be determined by the other party. In determining the Early Termination Amount in accordance with (x) or (y) above, references to the “Determining Party” in the first paragraph of the definition of “Close-out Amount” in the deemed 2002 ISDA Master Agreement shall be deemed to be references to the “Non-affected Party”. The Early Termination Amount shall be determined as of the Early Termination Date or, if that would not be commercially reasonable, as of the date or dates following the Early Termination Date as would be commercially reasonable.

- (d) Upon, or as soon as reasonably practicable following the determination of the Early Termination Amount, the party making such determination shall provide the other party with written notice of the Early Termination Amount (setting forth the details of the calculation in reasonable detail). Such notice shall be effective (i) upon receipt, if receipt occurs at or prior to 3:00 p.m. Local Settlement Time, or (ii) the next Local Business Day following receipt, if receipt occurs after 3:00 p.m. Local Settlement Time, which receipt in each case may be evidenced by the notifying party's receipt of a successful transmission or delivery record (where such notice is delivered by fax, e-mail, registered mail or hand delivery). The Early Termination Amount will be due and payable on the Local Business Day following the day that notice of such amount is effective. If a party fails to pay such Early Termination Amount when due, it will, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, pay interest on the overdue amount to the other party on demand, for the period from and including the original due date for payment to (but excluding) the date of actual payment, at the Default Rate.
- (e) For the avoidance of doubt, the reference in Paragraph 4(c) to Section 6(e) is included solely for the purpose of incorporating the methodology and defined terms applicable under such Section 6(e) in order to determine the Early Termination Amount, and no other provision of such deemed 2002 ISDA Master Agreement shall be applicable to, or otherwise incorporated into, this Agreement.
- (f) If Party A has not elected any of (a), (b) or (c) prior to the expiration of the Party A Election Period, Party A shall be deemed to have elected 4(c) immediately prior to the expiration of the Party A Election Period.
- (g) In respect only of this Paragraph 4, the provisions of this Paragraph 4 shall prevail over any Applicable Law (unless otherwise specifically provided for in this Paragraph 4), unless any performance of Paragraph 4 would be illegal, in which event the relevant Applicable Law shall prevail. For the avoidance of doubt, except with respect to those Swap Execution Facilities listed on Schedule 1 hereto and any Derivatives Transactions that are executed in anonymous markets or markets operated as central limit order books, the provisions of this Paragraph 4 shall supersede the rules of any Swap Execution Facility on or through which the Derivatives Transaction is executed.

5. Delegation of Responsibilities. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, each of the parties authorizes the other party to delegate to one or more other persons or entities certain responsibilities in connection with their obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that any party using such services shall remain responsible to the other party for the performance (or failure of performance) of their respective obligations and responsibilities under this Agreement.

6. Limitation of Liability. Unless otherwise provided by Applicable Law or herein, neither of the parties shall be responsible or liable for losses or damages resulting from: (i) error, negligence or misconduct of the other party, the Swap Execution Facility or Clearing Organization, or any service provider selected in good faith; (ii) failure of transmission, communication or electronic order facilities; or (iii) any other cause or causes beyond their control. In no event shall any party be liable to the other for consequential, incidental, indirect, punitive or special damages.

7. Termination. Subject as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement may be terminated by either of Party A or Party B upon prior written notice to the other party. Any such termination shall have no effect upon any party's rights and obligations arising prior to such termination, and this Agreement will remain in effect and govern any Derivatives Transactions executed prior to such written notice and which have not been accepted for clearing by a Clearing Organization or otherwise terminated or addressed pursuant to Paragraph 4 hereof.

8. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be exclusively governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York without regard to principles of choice of law (other than as set forth in Sections 5-1401 and 5-1402 of the New York General Obligations Law).

9. Recordings. Each party consents to the electronic recording, without the use of an automatic warning tone, of all telephone conversations between the parties and their representatives.

10. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed and delivered in counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), each of which will be deemed an original.

11. [Any party that has manually executed this Agreement represents, covenants and agrees that the version electronically executed by the other party and stored on EGUS is the final version and sets forth the complete terms and conditions as agreed to by the parties.

12. Conformed signatures were executed electronically in accordance with the [FIA Electronic Give-Up Agreement System User Agreement.] [Consider whether EGUS system would be used for this type of agreement; if not, these clauses should be deleted.]

13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all oral communication and prior writings with respect thereto. Each of the parties acknowledges that in entering into this Agreement it has not relied on any oral or written representation, warranty or other assurance (except as provided for or referred to in this Agreement) and waives all rights and remedies which might otherwise be available to it in respect thereof, except that nothing in this Agreement will limit or exclude any liability of a party for fraud.

14. Amendments. Except as otherwise provided herein, an amendment, modification or waiver in respect of this Agreement will only be effective if in writing (including a writing evidenced by a facsimile, email or other electronic transmission) and executed by each of the parties or confirmed by an exchange of emails.

15. Survival of Obligations. The obligations of the parties under this Agreement will survive the termination of any Derivatives Transaction.

16. Remedies Cumulative. Except as provided in this Agreement, the rights, powers, remedies and privileges provided in this Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers, remedies and privileges provided by law.

17. No Waiver of Rights. A failure or delay in exercising any right, power or privilege in respect of this Agreement will not be presumed to operate as a waiver, and a single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege will not be presumed to preclude any subsequent or further exercise of that right, power or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

18. Headings. The headings used in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction of or to be taken into consideration in interpreting this Agreement.

19. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their successors and permitted assigns. The parties may not assign this Agreement without the consent of the other party hereto, provided, however, that a party may make such a transfer of this Agreement pursuant to a consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all its assets to, another entity (but without prejudice to any other right or remedy under this Agreement).

20. Severability. Subject to Paragraph 4(g), if any provision of this Agreement is, or at any time becomes, inconsistent with any present or future provision of Applicable Law, the inconsistent provision shall be deemed superseded or modified to conform with the relevant law, rule or regulation, and Applicable Law shall govern for the purpose of this Agreement, but in all other respects this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

21. Waiver of Immunities. Each party irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, with respect to itself and its revenues and assets (irrespective of their use or intended use), all immunity on the grounds of sovereignty or other similar grounds from (i) suit, (ii) jurisdiction of any court, (iii) relief by way of injunction, or order for specific performance or for recovery of property, (iv) attachment of its assets (whether before or after judgment) and (v) execution or enforcement of any judgment to which it or its revenues or assets might otherwise be entitled in any proceedings in the courts of any jurisdiction, and irrevocably agrees, to the extent permitted by applicable law, that it will not claim any such immunity in any proceedings.

22. Consent to Jurisdiction. Except as provided in Paragraph 1 of this Agreement, any legal action, suit or proceeding between the parties relating to this Agreement or transactions hereunder shall take place in the Courts of the State of New York located in the Borough of Manhattan or in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Each party consents to the service of process by the mailing to such party of copies of such court filing by certified mail to the address of such party as it appears in Exhibit 1 to this Agreement (for Notices), such service to be effective ten days after mailing. Each party agrees that any legal action, suit or proceeding arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement may be brought in such courts; and waives, and agrees not to assert, as a defense in any such action, suit or proceeding (a) that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of such courts, (b) that such action, suit or proceeding may not be brought or is not maintainable in such courts, (c) that this Agreement may not be enforced in or by such courts, or (d) that the venue of any such action, suit or proceeding is inconvenient or improper. Final judgment against party in any action, suit or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in any other jurisdiction by suit on the judgment, a certified copy of which shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and amount of indebtedness arising from such judgment. Each party hereby waives irrevocably any immunity to which it might otherwise be entitled in any action at law, suit in equity or any other proceeding arising out of or based on this agreement or any transaction in connection herewith
